how does teaching christianly differ from other forms of teaching how might a christian teach a commonplace set of facts from a mandated secular curriculum in a biblical way this book considers what may be involved in a biblical approach to teaching as it emerges from a biblically grounded life and what this might look like in the classroom rather than speaking of integration of faith and learning it begins with a foundation of christ the truth and lord of all including all curriculum subjects and moves to the development of a framework for classroom practice that includes a need to try to see things from god s perspective all truly christian education is seen therefore as a profoundly biblical pursuit leading to the revelation of god in order to demonstrate this the book explores the underlying principles out of which our education should flow these principles then allow us to consider such areas as a christian way to teach any subject or even what might be distinctive about the way a christian teacher may do something as mundane as picking up a pencil

this book delves into the argument that faith has a critical role in shaping pedagogy and the learning experience it explores education combining both theory and practice showing how teachers of every subject and age group can be attentive to how their students are experiencing and interpreting learning and how there are myriad opportunities to design classes that are deeply rooted in christian practices

my particular hope is that this introductory book for there are a number of more detailed text book type publications on this topic will be useful to help those who want to teach more biblically this book is an invitation to the start of a journey the journey involves recognising more clearly the nature of the world around us and how we can test god's will for us as teachers where ever it is that we teach the book focusses on the concept of character biblical character is defined by god offering his grace when we did not and do not deserve it we are therefore called to serve others by recognising this grace in the teaching gift he gives to us 1 peter 4 10 11 such discerning wisdom is the key to staying faithful to this call so our teaching is not reduced to an instructional formula or a controlling social engineering program the purpose of teaching as a christian is to be an agent of grace and truth who invites others to grow up into christ this is the basis of true character for the christian teacher in this revised edition findley b edge explains that many sunday school teachers fail to achieve better results because their teaching aims are too general and often vague the solution he says is for the teacher to focus on a single objective for each lesson and work toward that aim with singleness of purpose
